

UK University Students Visit Fushe Kosova on Study Tour

Contributed by Administrator
Tuesday, 17 June 2014
Last Updated Tuesday, 17 June 2014

On Friday, June 13, a group of students from the University of Essex (UK) visited Balkan Sunflowersâ€™™ Fushe Kosova Learning Center. The students are studying human rights and were visiting various organizations in Kosovo as part of a study tour. During the visit to FKLC, they had the opportunity to see the center in action and have a question and answer session with BSF International Coordinator Rand Engel.